Optinose Announces Departure of Chief Commercial Officer

Company reiterates guidance for XHANCE net revenues for 2019 to be in the range of $29 - $34 million

YARDLEY, Pa., September 17, 2019 Optinose (NASDAQ:OPTN), a pharmaceutical company focused on patients treated by ear, nose and throat (ENT) and allergy specialists, today announced the departure of its Chief Commercial Officer, Tom Gibbs.

Mr. Gibbs will be leaving the Company next week to assume a senior general management role at a major multinational pharmaceutical company. Senior members of the Optinose commercial leadership, including Vice Presidents of sales, marketing, and market access, will report directly to Optinose President and Chief Operating Officer Ramy Mahmoud on an interim basis as the Company initiates a search for a Chief Commercial Officer.

"Our entire company would like to thank Tom for his outstanding contributions over the past three years," said Ramy Mahmoud, MD, MPH. "Tom has become a good friend and has been valuable in helping us build and grow an experienced and talented commercial team. We all wish him continued success in future."

Chief Executive Officer Peter Miller added "Ramy and I work closely with Tom and the commercial leadership team every day and have great confidence in continued strong execution of the XHANCE® launch strategy that has proven so successful in growing our business. Together we have developed and executed a commercial strategy for XHANCE that has produced three consecutive quarters of 50% or greater prescription growth and that we expect will produce net revenues for 2019 in the range of $29 to $34 million."

"Working with Peter, Ramy and the team at Optinose to successfully launch XHANCE has been one of the greatest and most fulfilling accomplishments in my career," said Tom Gibbs, departing Chief Commercial Officer. "XHANCE performance over the last three quarters has been very strong, and I believe the underlying business fundamentals for XHANCE remain strong. I look forward to following the team's success as they continue to build a leading ENT and allergy company."
